

Concerned Black Men of Los Angeles

Emerging Leaders

Meeting Location:
Leland Weaver Library
4035 Tweedy Blvd,
South Gate CA, 90280

October 2022 – May 2023 1:00pm to 3:00pm

Workshop Topics and Purpose

Program Orientation

Oct 15 This session aims to set the expectation for Emerging Leaders. We will discuss what it means to be a leader, talk about previous Emerging Leaders, and identify skills they have that exhibit leadership.

Student Leadership

Nov 19 This session will build on the idea of our Emerging Leaders being Student Leaders outside of this program. This will explore the history of student leaders throughout history. At the end of the session, the youth will decide on the upcoming community service event will be.

Governing Body and Leadership Structures

Dec 17 This session will build on the idea of our Emerging Leaders being Student Leaders outside of this program. This will explore the history of student leaders throughout history. At the end of the session, the youth will decide on the upcoming community service event will be.

The Importance of Service Learning

Jan 21 Emerging Leaders will define service learning and the importance of giving back to your own community. By the end of the session, Emerging Leaders will have an idea of how to find other opportunities to be a part of.

Why Going to College is Important

Feb 18 Emerging Leaders will have the opportunity to have an honest conversation about the importance of going to college.

Realities for People of Color in College

Mar 18 Even though college is an awesome experience for people of color, there are some issues that some students typically face on campus. This session is set up to talk about the different issues that may arise, and various ways to navigate them.

Different Types of Colleges

Apr 15 This session will explore the various types of colleges, so Emerging Leaders can decide on which school they believe works best for them.

How to Prepare for College

May 20 This session will cover the various things colleges look for, the need to consistently check your emails and portals while waiting for a decision and ensuring you don't miss deadlines for scholarships.

Final Session

Jun 17 This session will be a reflection on the year of sessions and service learning opportunities. Emerging Leaders will be given certificates and talk about things they will be taking with them after this session.